26TH ANNUAL MCMASTER PSYCHIATRY RESEARCH DAY

Theme: Psychiatry and Medicine: Towards Integration
Hosts: Dr. Rebecca Anglin and Dr. Patricia Rosebush

8:00 – 8:30 Registration / Light Breakfast

8:30 – 9:00 Opening Remarks: Dr. Nick Kates, Dr. Patti Rosebush and Dr. Rebecca Anglin

9:00 – 10:00 Keynote Speaker: Dr. Gary Rodin
Professor of Psychiatry, University of Toronto
University of Toronto/University Health Network Chair in Psychosocial Oncology and Palliative Care
Head, Department of Psychosocial Oncology and Palliative Care, Princess Margaret Cancer Center
Title: “A Thousand Deaths: The Psychological Impact of Advanced and Terminal Disease”

10:00 – 10:30 Refreshment Break

10:30 – 11:45 Symposium: “Medical Psychiatry at McMaster”
Dr. Deborah Cook
Canada Research Chair of Research Transfer in Intensive Care
McMaster University/St. Joseph’s Healthcare Regional Academic Chair in Critical Care Medicine
Professor, Department of Medicine, Clinical Epidemiology and Biostatistics, McMaster University
Title: “Psychiatric challenges in the ICU”

Dr. Paul Moayyedi
Richard Hunt/AstraZeneca Chair of Gastroenterology
Director (Acting), Farncombe Family Digestive Health Research Institute
Professor, Division of Gastroenterology, Department of Medicine, McMaster University
Title: “Why are the brain and gut so connected?”

11:45 – 1:30 Poster Session and Luncheon

1:30 – 3:00 Keynote Speaker: Dr. Norman Doidge
Lecturer, Columbia University Center for Psychoanalytic Training and Research
Title: “The Neuroplasticity Revolution”

3:00 – 3:15 Award Presentations: Dr. Karen Saperson

3:15 – 3:30 Closing Comments: Dr. Harriet MacMillan and Dr. Margaret McKinnon