

25th ANNUAL RESEARCH DAY

Wednesday April 17, 2013 – Hamilton Convention Centre

8:00 – 3:15 pm

Theme: Psychological Trauma and the Effects of Childhood Maltreatment

Hosts: Dr. Harriet MacMillan and Dr. Margaret McKinnon, Associate Co-Chairs, Research

- 8:00 – 8:30 Registration / Light Breakfast
- 8:30 – 8:45 Opening Remarks: Dr. Nick Kates
Welcome and Agenda Overview: Drs. MacMillan and McKinnon
- 8:45 – 9:45 Keynote Speaker: Dr. Ruth Lanius
Professor and Harris-Woodman Chair in Psyche and Soma
Department of Psychology, University of Western Ontario
“Neural and Behavioural Correlates of Psychological Trauma”
- 9:45 – 10:00 Refreshment Break
- 10:00 – 11:15 Symposium: “Impact of Trauma on Development”
Dr. Shawn Rhind
Defense Scientist, Group Leader, Diagnosis and Prevention Group, Individual Behaviour and Performance Section, Defense Research and Development Canada
Dr. Andrea Gonzalez
Assistant Professor, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioural Neurosciences, McMaster University
- 11:15 – 1:15 Poster Session and Luncheon
- 1:15 – 1:45 Colloquium: “Reflections – Celebrating 25 Years of Psychiatry Research Day”
- 1:45 – 2:45 Keynote Speaker: Dr. Patrick McGowan
Assistant Professor of Neuroscience and Epigenetics, Centre for the Neurobiology of Stress, Department of Biological Sciences, University of Toronto, Scarborough and Department of Cell and Systems Biology, Department of Psychology, University of Toronto
“The Epigenetic Impact of the Environment in Early Life”
- 2:45 – 3:00 Award Presentations: Dr. Karen Saperson
- 3:00 – 3:15 Closing Comments: Drs. MacMillan and McKinnon

Celebrating a Quarter of a Century of Department Research – 1989 – 2013