

John C. Deadman, BA, MD, DipPsych, FRCPC

HEALTH SCIENCES
Psychiatry & Behavioural
Neurosciences

Research Work

History of Medicine, psychiatry.

Publication 2016 - Moving out of the Shadows: A history of Forensic Psychiatry in Hamilton.

Publication 2013 – The Ontario Psychiatric Association's 90 years of History.

Publication 1988 - Standards and Guidelines for the Psychotherapies, (Ed. P. Cameron, J. Ennis, J. Deadman,)

Publication 1987 - "Social Attitudes towards the mentally ill: A Historical Perspective"

Mentalities/Mentalités. (Hamilton, N.Z.,) Vol. 11, 2, January 1997.

Numerous peer reviewed presentations on psychiatric history going back to 1985.

Chair of the Section of the History and Philosophy of Psychiatry 2010-2018. During this time we made annual presentations (2012-2018) on the problems of psychiatry established itself as a scientific discipline.

Current Research Projects Include:

- Book manuscript with David Streiner - Invisible Insanity: A social history of mental illness in Canada. In final editing.
- Book manuscript – Battle, Murder and Sudden Death: A biography of William James Deadman, Medical Pioneer. My father was City pathologist in Hamilton for 37 years.

Engagement Opportunities

Introductory Level

- Presentations at rounds or other learning venues.

Intermediate Level

- Group or individual discussions with students in health sciences disciplines.

Advanced Level

- Tutoring postgraduate students in history of psychiatry projects.

If you are interested in learning more, please leave your contact information with the Research Office and/or contact Dr. Deadman at deadmanj@mcmaster.ca