

Gary Chaimowitz, MB, ChB, MBA, FRCP(C)

HEALTH SCIENCES
Psychiatry & Behavioural
Neurosciences

Research Work

Research focuses on various aspects of forensic psychiatry involving risk assessment and management. Additional areas include the use of analytics in Forensic Psychiatry, virtual reality, a knowledge translation project, management of aggression, and understanding patients under the Ontario Review Board.

Engagement Opportunities

Introductory Level

- Literature reviews 20 hrs (Escapes/Virtual Reality)
- Data entry 50 hrs – Analytics in Forensic Psychiatry

Intermediate Level

- Literature review/Meta-analysis 30 hrs – Analytics in Forensic Psychiatry
- Manuscript preparation 10 hrs
- Data analysis 10 hrs
- HiREB application 5 hrs

Advanced Level

- Development of research protocols 50 hrs
- HiREB application
- Data analysis 30 hrs
- Group meeting
- Prepare manuscript 20 hrs
- (for various projects)

If you are interested in learning more, please leave your contact information with the Research Office and/or contact Gary Chaimowitz (chaimow@mcmaster.ca).