

PAST RESEARCH DAY THEMES (2003 – 2019)

31st Annual Research Day, May 1st, 2019

"The Intersection between Mental Health, Research and Public Health"

30th Annual Research Day, May 2, 2018

"Risk and Resilience in Child & Youth Mental Health"

29th Annual Research Day, May 3, 2017

"Innovations and Controversies in Education Research"

28th Annual Research Day, April 27, 2016

"Prenatal Programming, Postnatal Possibilities"

27th Annual Research Day, April 29, 2015

"Mechanisms of Risk, Resilience, and Treatment Response"

26th Annual Research Day, April 23, 2014

"Psychiatry and Medicine: Towards Integration"

25th Annual Research Day, April 17, 2013

"Psychological Trauma and the Effects of Childhood Maltreatment"

24th Annual Research Day, May 23, 2012

"Psychiatry at McMaster: A Pathway to Innovative Research on Mind, Body and Environment"

23rd Annual Research Day, April 13, 2011

"Neurodevelopmental Disorders with Neuropsychiatric Manifestations"

22nd Annual Research Day, April 21, 2010

"Our Changing Brain: The Impact of Neuroplasticity on the Understanding and Practice of Psychiatry"

21st Annual Research Day: April 15, 2009

"Psychiatric Disorder, Epidemiology and the Life Course"

20th Annual Research Day: April 16, 2008

"Schizophrenia"

19th Annual Research Day: April 11, 2007

"Anxiety Disorders"

18th Annual Research Day: April 5, 2006

"Women's Mental Health"

17th Annual Research Day: April 13, 2005

"Early Detection/Early Intervention"

16th Annual Research Day: April 22, 2004

"Challenges and Advances in Psychotherapy"

15th Annual Research Day: April 2, 2003

"Aggression, Crime & Mental Disorder"