

Shiphra Ginsburg

Lorelei Lingard

Geoff Norman

Jonathan Sherbino

May 3rd, 2017

Mohawk College, Fennell Campus, McIntyre Performing Arts Theatre

8:00am – 3:30pm

29TH ANNUAL McMASTER PSYCHIATRY RESEARCH DAY

Theme: Innovations and Controversies in Education Research
Hosted by: Drs. Karen Saperson, Sheila Harms and Natasja Menezes

- 8:00 – 8:30      Registration / Light Breakfast
- 8:30 – 8:45      Opening Remarks: Dr. Nick Kates, Department Chair
Welcome and Agenda Overview: Dr. Karen Saperson, Associate Chair, Education
- 8:45 – 9:45      Keynote Speaker: Dr. Shiphra Ginsburg
Professor, Department of Internal Medicine, University of Toronto
“Understanding and assessing professionalism: Lessons from a research program”
- 9:45– 11:00      Poster Session and Refreshment Break
- 11:00 – 12:00      Debate: “Will Competency-based Medical Education Lead To Better Doctors”
- Dr. Geoff Norman
Professor Emeritus, Department of Health Research Methods, Evidence, and Impact
McMaster University
- Dr. Jonathan Sherbino
Associate Professor, Department of Medicine, McMaster University
- 12:00 – 1:00      Luncheon
- 1:00 – 2:00      Keynote Speaker: Dr. Lorelei Lingard
Professor, Department of Medicine at Western University
“Truths & Myths about Teams, and their implications for assessing competence”
- 2:00 – 3:00      Panel Discussion: “Fifty Shades of Grey: Observations and Feedback within the Professional Role”
Moderators: Drs. Sheila Harms and Natasja Menezes
- 3:00 – 3:15      Award Presentations
- 3:15 – 3:30      Closing Remarks:
Drs. Harriet MacMillan and Margaret McKinnon, Associate Co-Chairs, Research